- Groups to select a team coordinator. This person is not a team leader and does not assume any responsibility for other members of the team, other than co-ordinating with the meet organiser.
- Write an outline of your proposed route. Ensure everyone in the group is named and provides their mobile number.
- Teams greater than 8 may be unwieldy so you may want to create smaller teams.
- These route cards to be left in a location agreed by the meet organiser.
- On return the coordinator informs the meet organiser everyone in their sub team is accounted for.
- On the last day, when everyone is heading home, the team coordinator needs to phone the meet organiser to let them know everyone is off the hill.
